Now let's get started with the demonstration. Try Testing on iPhone Devices for FreeHow to request a desktop site on the iPhone Listed below are the steps one can follow to view the desktop version of a website in Safari running on iPhone (iOS 13) Open the Safari browser and navigate to any website. Once the website loads, click the "aA" icon available in the top corner positioned before the address bar. It opens the website view menu. From the available options, choose the "Request Desktop Website" option. In case, one wants access to the latest iPhones for testing, Try Testing on iPhone Devices for FreeRead More: How to Debug on iPhone Safari for WindowsIndividuals who are using iOS 12 and earlier versions, follow these two steps: Step 1: Open the Safari browser window and navigate to the desired website. Once the website loads, tap and hold on the "Refresh" button next to the address bar. Step 2: A pop-up appears at the bottom of the screen, choose Request Desktop Site from the two options. Following the steps above will help in viewing the desktop version of any website. Now, let's understand how teams can ensure that their website is optimized for both mobile and desktop versions of Safari. There are two easy methods: Method 1: Manually downloading latest and legacy browser versions of Safari Developers and QAs can download the latest and older versions of Safari manually on their devices and test websites on it. However, this process is extremely time-consuming and effort-intensive. Downloading and installing individual browser versions is an inefficient task. Besides, testing different versions of Safari on real iOS devices means requires teams to have on-premise device labs. Having such labs incurs huge investments, both financially and in terms of human effort. Maintaining and updating it on a regular basis comprises an additional overhead. Method 2: Using BrowserStack to test websites on real devices For comprehensive cross browser testing across a variety of browser versions and devices, teams need the ideal test infrastructure. BrowserStack exactly does that by providing teams cloud-based access to 2000+ real devices and browsers. BrowserStack's real device cloud provides the following: Real Android and iOS devices (latest and legacy handsets) Windows and macOS environments running on real machines Popular browsers like Chrome, Safari, Firefox, Opera and others What is the best way to request a desktop site on multiple iPhone models? #CSS #HTML #Bootstrap #FrameworkSebenarnya tag tidak termasuk dalam Bootstrap, melainkan fitur yang ada HTML.
